Can Cut Budget By Less Spending

WASHINGTON, (UP)—A House Appropriations subcommittee said today the only way to cut the budget is to stop setting up new federal projects.

It rejected administration and Hoover Commission proposals to give Congress a tighter control over spending as merely "magic devices" that won't work.

The subcommittee called on would-be budget-cutters to face the "facts."

"Each year new programs and projects are authorized and old programs are often extended and expanded," it said.

"In contrast, seldom are existing programs and activities deauthorized. The cumulative effect is increasing demands on the federal treasury."

The economy-minded House Wednesday passed its fourth "trimmed" appropriation bill of the current session. The lawmakers chopped more than a half billion dollars from a $5.0 billion request for operating 12 government agencies including the civil Defense and Veterans administrations.

MINISTER IS CHAPEL SPEAKER AT UNIVERSITY

WEST LAFAYETTE PASTOR DELIVERS ADDRESS ON WEDNESDAY

Seeking an answer to the question, "How can we live with zest?" Dr. H. Richard Rasmusson posed three additional questions here yesterday in a DePauw chapel address.

"Who are we?" asked the pastor of West Lafayette's University Presbyterian Church. "To what will we give ourselves?" "On what level will we live?"

Men are "living souls," he said, stamped deep inside with God's image, made for fellowship with God, and created in the likeness of God.

Referring to his second question, Dr. Rasmusson expressed concern over the refusal of today's young people to commit themselves "for fear of being fooled."

"If we are not willing to lose ourselves in some enterprise more enduring than ourselves," he commented, "we will not find the world that sings."

The speaker described his first "living level" as the level of instinct, involving a completely self-centered attitude, and the second as the level of ideals and morality.

On this second level, he continued, "we are moral but we would rather be immoral," behaving in a certain way only because it is "the right and conventional thing to do."

Finally, Dr. Rasmusson said, there is the level of grace, upon which "man has ceased to be the center of his own world and has made the difficult surrender to God."

Killer Granted Execution Stay

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind. (UP)—"Had dog" killer Leslie Irvin, 33, Evansville, celebrated his third reprieve today from a date with the electric chair in Indiana State Prison.

Prison spokesman said Irvin learned unofficially in his death row cell that U. S. Supreme Court Justice Harold H. Burton had granted a stay of execution Wednesday, postponing his electrocution from March 29.

Irvin was sentenced to death for the gun slaying of Wesley Kerr, an Evansville filling station operator, in December, 1954. Kerr's murder was one of six "Chinese execution style" slayings in Indiana and Kentucky in a four-month period which authorities blamed on Irvin.

Burton gave Irvin a reprieve to enable his attorneys to appeal to this nation's highest court a ruling of the Indiana Supreme Court upholding the death sentence imposed by a jury in Gibson Circuit Court in December, 1955.

Irvin's attorneys claimed an illegal confession was used against him in his Princeton trial and that he was denied a speedy arraignment after his arrest in Evansville.

Offers Spa For Old Folks Home

MARTINSVILLE, Ind. (UP)—A Martinsville philanthropist has offered a 110-room mineral springs spa to archrival agency for use as a home for old folks.

Walter A. Kennedy, whose spa here is operated by a foundation offered it as a gift to the National Benevolent Association of the Disciples of Christ Christian Church.

Kennedy offered to assist financially in converting the spa to a retirement health home as a permanent memorial to his son, Charles, who was killed in a traffic accident in 1938.

Spokesmen for the religious denomination said acceptance of the gift might make unnecessary plans for building a $500,000 wing on the church's Emily E. Flynn Home at Marion.

The offer will be considered at a meeting of the association in St. Louis, Mo., this spring. The association operates 16 other homes for the aged.

Wintry weather lingered in the northeast with heavy snow blanketing portions of Rhode Island, Connecticut and Massachusetts.

Opposes Any Embargo Relaxing

TAIPEI (UP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek warned the United States and Britain today that they "will be helping to defeat themselves" if they relax the strategic goods embargo against Communist China.

The Nationalist Chinese president told United Press in an exclusive interview that any ease-up on the embargo "would be helping the Chinese Communists pull their chestnuts out of the fire."

Chiang termed Communist peace rumors "groundless" and denied Red Chinese Premier Chou Enlai's charge that the United States has turned Formosa into a dependency.

"The Communist idea is to arouse anti-American feelings among Chinese on the mainland," Chiang said.

He said Communist China "is in desperate need of help. They are just now beginning to feel the effects of the embargo that began during the Korean War."

WORD AWAITED FROM TEAMSTER UNION'S BOSS

SENATE PROBES AWAITING ANSWER BY PRESIDENT DAVE BECK

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Senate Rackets Committee today awaited word from Teamster President Dave Beck whether he will turn over all his personal financial records voluntarily.

Committee Chairman John L. McClellan called on Beck to telegraph during the day a promise that he will surrender all the records when he appears before the committee Tuesday.

The committee recalled this morning Western Teamster boss Frank W. Brewster for more questioning on the charge that he was linked with an alleged rackets-Teamster plot to control vice and gambling in Portland, Ore.

Brewster denied it last week. The committee also sought Brewster's personal financial records.

Asked what the committee would do if Beck refused to hand over the records, McClellan said: "We've got lots of subpoena blanks."

Beck promised Wednesday to bring his records "without prejudice to my rights under the Constitution and Bill of Rights." The phrase puzzled McClellan, but he suspected it included possible use of the Fifth Amendment against self-incrimination.

Beck—if subpoenaed—is required by law to come to the hearing room with his records. But he can invoke the Fifth Amendment against handing them over to the committee if he feels they would tend to incriminate him.

More Delegates For Conventions

INDIANAPOLIS (UP)—Republicans and Democrats will send 887 more delegates to their state conventions in 1958 than in 1956, State Election Board figures showed today.

Number of delegates is based on each party's vote for secretary of state in the last previous election. One delegate is sent for each 400 votes.

Republicans picked up 662 more delegates to the 1958 nominating convention, and Democrats added 225.

In 1956 the totals were Republicans 2,032, Democrats 1,923. The increase for both parties reflects a heavier vote in a presidential election year.

Convention delegates in 1958 will choose nominees for the U. S. Senate seat now held by Sen. William Jenner, and some state offices.

The county breakdown of delegates, the GOP for Putnam will have 15 delegates and the Democrats 13.

Kadar Becoming Puppet Of Russ

By United Press
Soviet Russia appears to be making a determined attempt to strengthen the regime of Communist Premier Janos Kadar of Hungary.

At the same time, it is making Kadar more and more of a puppet who is completely under Russian domination.

Kadar, who betrayed the government of Imre Nagy during the Hungarian revolt, arrived in Moscow Wednesday on a "state" visit which is expected to last 10 days or more.

His hosts really rolled out the red carpet for him.

They knew, as Kadar did, that he left behind him a sullen, bitter people who accept him only because a Russian army of occupation is ready to turn its tanks and artillery against them at the first sign of a new revolt.

Mr. McCullough commented on the addresses given by David Binkley, nationally known news commentator, and other important speakers. BERMUDA TALKS OPEN BETWEEN IKE, MACMILLAN

CONFERENCE DEALING ON BROAD SCALE ANGLO-U. S. PROBLEMS

TUCKER'S TOWN, Bermuda (UP)—President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan settled down at the lavish Mid-Ocean Club today to discuss Anglo-American interests in a Middle East crisis to aid to Communist Poland.

Their top aides in foreign affairs, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd, were expected to meet before their chiefs to organize the agenda for the opening "business" meeting.

According to the best available information from both British and American sources, President Eisenhower planned to do most of the listening in the first stage of the conference and let the British take the initiative.

Today's session was the first formal meeting across the polished conference table in the club lounge where Mr. Eisenhower met in 1953 on a similar mission with Britain's Winston Churchill and France's Joseph Daniel.

Most of the items that will come up in the three-day conference were touched upon Wednesday night by Mr. Eisenhower, Macmillan, Dulles and Lloyd at a private dinner.

They broke off the meal early in the evening and adjourned to their own camps to map strategy for today's talks.

There was every indication they had a monumental job to do. In just 72 hours they will try to realign Anglo-American policies on nearly a dozen major world problems, on some of which there is known to be considerable divergence of opinion between them.

There were indications one of the most important parts of the conference will deal with Britain's determination to pull out 13,500 of its 70,000 troops in Germany within the next year to cut down on defense costs.

The British also plan to make further reductions in the future. The U. S. view is this might seriously weaken the North Atlantic Treaty Organization shield against possible Soviet expansion.

Informed sources expressed belief the two nations would come to "total agreement" on payment of tolls by ships passing through the Suez Canal but detailed information on this subject was kept high secret.

The British arrived armed with a long list of subjects for discussion and let it be known they intended this to be a "working" conference to settle points of joint policies wherever possible.

Aside from the Israeli-Egyptian dispute, which will get a thorough going over, other Middle East items expected to come up before Saturday night include Cyprus and the Soviet attempt to convert the Middle East and Africa to Communism.

Syria Rejects American Bid

WASHINGTON (UP)—Syria has rejected a bid from an American firm to build an oil refinery in Syria in favor of an offer from Communist Czechoslovakia, informed sources said today.

The decision went against strong advice from the United States government.

However, American officials were not too surprised Syria paid little heed to U. S. advice. In recent years Syria has been doing an increasing volume of business with Soviet-bloc nations.

Syria, which is now dependent on neighboring Lebanon for its refined petroleum products, called last fall for bids on construction of a refinery in Syria. Several American firms were interested as well as outfits in Britain, France and Czechoslovakia.

"Where did you get that hat?" may be a common question around Putnam County after March 27th, because on that day Mrs. Mary Reed of Indianapolis, who has been making hats all her life—first professionally and now as a hobby—will be in Greencastle to teach us how to make hats.

Every season she makes a red hat for herself in the latest fashion. "Every one," she says, "should have a pretty hat especially when she gets older." Also according to Mrs. Reed, a good hat gives one lots of courage. If you are interested in trying your hand at making a new hat, call or write the extension office for details about our hat making class.

Good Food Buys
Now is the time to check the canned and frozen food counter for low prices. This week canned corn, tomato juice, prune plums and peaches; frozen peas and strawberries will be featured at some groceries.

The fresh fruit counter has inexpensive bananas, oranges and marsh seedless grapefruit.

The fresh vegetable counter will feature low priced potatoes with both the new and old ones a good value. Celery, lettuce and carrots at low prices suggest crisp salads and vegetable plates for the lenten menu. Large eggs are still low in price and the fish counter sports low price tags too. The price of beef is steadily climbing although it is still a good value. There will be low priced pork loins at some groceries, while others will feature fresh or smoked picnics. Frying chickens are also a good value this week. Variety meats, such as liver, kidney, sweetbreads and brains are almost always good bargains at your meat counter. Milk and dairy products are low in price throughout the year and should be used to full advantage to stretch the budget.

Hog prices are expected to strengthen during the next few months, reaching a peak between late May and early July, two Purdue University agricultural economists have reported.

Reclining receipts will cause the prices to rise, according to J. Carroll Bottom and P. J. Luby. They predict the peak will be slightly above last summer's highest prices of about $18—the average paid for barrows and gilts at Indianapolis.

Increased late spring and summer farrowings are likely to cause prices to fluctuate mostly between $13 and $15 by next November and December. Probable increases in fall farrowings will result in increased marketings during the first three months of 1958 with prices fluctuating at the $13 to $17 level.

It's Easy to Lay Out Yard For Big Garden Harvests

In selecting flower and vegetable seeds for your garden, let your personal preference be your guide to colors, variety and types of vegetables.

If your family is mad about beets, tomatoes and radishes, plant more of them rather than some of the other vegetables.

As for flowers, everyone has favorite colors or shades. These color preferences are reflected in the decor within the home. Let this follow through with your outdoor decor.

There must be balance inside the home to make pleasing arrangement. The same goes for the yard. There is a point in planting small or low-growing annuals next to a wall, and then covering them up in front with taller flowers.

In a sketch of the yard, indicate background, middle ground and foreground in any flower borders which you are planning.

Select flowers for your background planting which are high. Cosmos, which grow from four to eight feet, are especially good for this area as well as Celosia, or Cockscorn as it is sometimes called.

Cosmos is available in rose, pink, white or red and the Celosia blossom is brilliant red or yellow. Other good background flowers are hollyhocks, datura (angel's trumpet or French lilies), and amaranthus. These provide a wide range of colors.

In the middle-ground, plant salvia, which are scarlet; anemone, a bright blue flower; and tall ageratum which offer shades of blue, white and rose. Another good middle ground flower is fragrant tobacco, a white blossom with a very pleasant perfume of its own.

Place the smaller flowers such as nasturtiums, verbena and annual phlox in the foreground.

For a circular or isolated flower bed in the yard, use the shorter flowers such as dwarf marigolds, verbena, petunias and dwarf zinnias.

Try lobelias, sweet alyssum and portulaca (moss roses) for edgings along walks, borders or driveways.

With the vegetable garden, a small area can be surprisingly productive if the area is well planned.

A space roughly comprising 1,000 square feet can provide enough fresh vegetables for a family of four.

In a very small garden, the greatest return can be realized by concentrating on the leafy, green and yellow vegetables and tomatoes. Sweet corn, beets, radishes, peppers, cucumbers and squash can be added in a larger garden area.

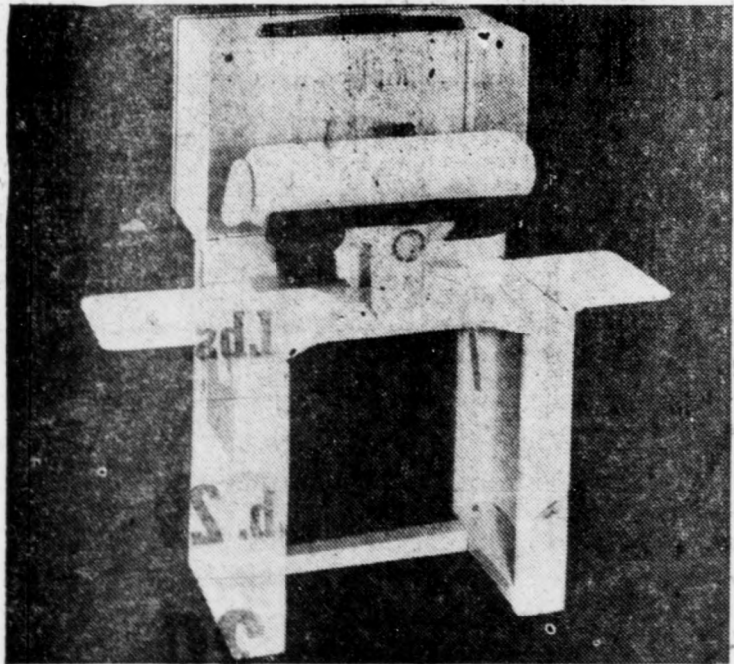

In selecting the site for a vegetable garden, steer clear of the north side of buildings or under shade trees. Vegetables need all of the sunlight they can get. A picket fence makes an excellent backdrop for a vegetable garden site as long as it is not to the south of the plot where it might make too much shade. The fence is handy also for tying up such plants as tomatoes and beans.

In buying packets of vegetable seeds, consult your seed catalog, seed store or garden supply store as to how much you will need. Seed should be sown thinly to give the plants room in which to expand as they grow. The average packet of carrot seed, for instance, contains approximately one-tenth of an ounce of seed. Five packets of carrot seed are sufficient to seed five rows of 20 feet in length. One ounce of radish seed is usually planted for five foot rows.

To give an idea of the estimated yield, the one-half ounce of carrot seed should yield about one and one-half bushels, while the yield from the ounce of radish seed is estimated at 100 bunches.

Flower and vegetable gardening can be one of the most rewarding hobbies. Gardening not only provides exercise and fresh air but lends beauty and color to the exterior of the home and provides cut flowers to brighten up the interior. Serving and eating vegetables from one's own garden is another delightful experience that is hard to match.

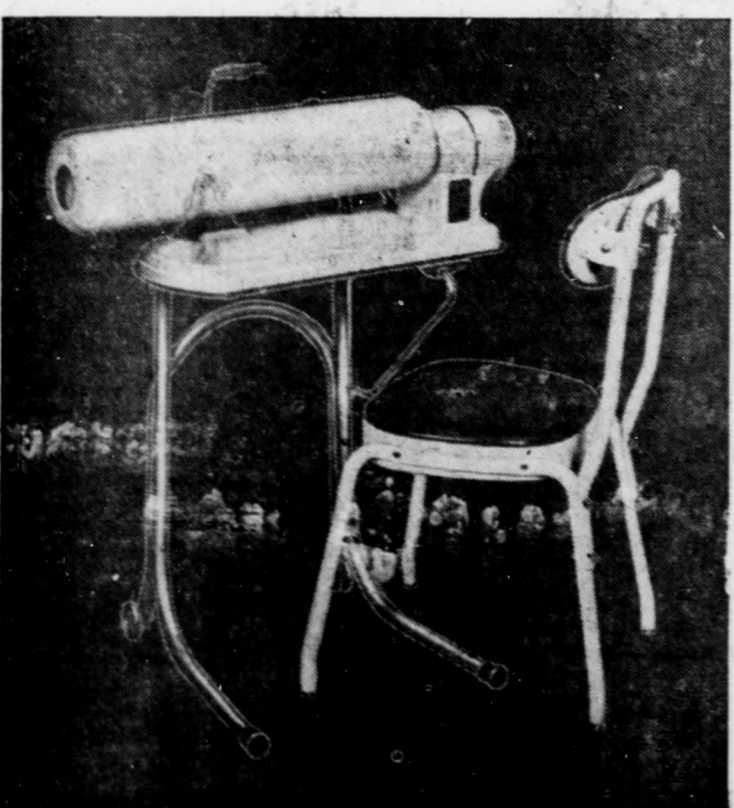

CUT IRONING TIME

To realize the full advantages of your automatic electric ironer, don't over-dampen your clothes. This causes great loss of time with the ironer because it requires excessive drying out periods during the ironing itself. This is where ironing with an ironer differs from ironing with a hand iron. With a hand iron, you iron so slowly that materials must be heavily dampened or they will dry out during the course of the ironing. But with the automatic electric ironer, the speed is so much greater that excessive dampening is not at all necessary.

And here's another ironer tip. Towels may be ironed faster if only every other one is dampened, then piled one on top of the other, and finally folded together so that the dry section is against the dampened part.

Auto Accident Takes 5 Lives

BEJOU, Minn. (UP) — Five persons were killed, three by electrocution in a futile rescue attempt today after a car smashed into a power line pole on U. S. 59, one mile north of here.

Six other persons were injured in the accident. Two were killed outright in the car and the three others died trying to pull the bodies out of the car after it landed in a water-filled ditch.

Authorities said there were eight passengers in the car, driven by William E. Schultz, 27, Winger, Minn., who was killed. Donald Haugen, 20, Winger, was the other crash victim.

The impact of the crash snapped hot power lines and dangled them into the water where the car landed.

Killed trying to aid the victims were Marvin Duncan, 18, Fosston, Minn., Orville Rolf, Fosston, a passenger in Duncan's car; and Clark Hoidahl, 21, Winger. Both Duncan and Hoidahl drove up to the scene of the crash shortly after 1 a. m. and waded into the ditch after the victims, only to die of electrocution instantly, authorities said.

Schultz and Haugen were electrocuted in the car.

The water in the ditch was only a foot and a half deep.

THE SUN'S SETTING ON THE BRITISH EMPIRE

THE BRITISH EMPIRE, long known as the empire the sun never sets on, seems to be going into a twilight. Recent independence of the former Gold Coast, and self-government negotiations of Singapore spotlight what's happened to the far-flung system since War II.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY William Langley of Portland (top) invoked the Fifth amendment 36 times from the witness stand in the Senate probe of labor racketeering. Gambler "Big Jim" Elkins (bottom) claimed a "voice" alleged to be Langley's on tape recordings schemed with hoodlums to "cut up the take" from monopolized vice.

Bill Approved By Senate Group

WASHINGTON (UP) — The Senate Agriculture Committee

Wednesday unanimously approved an administration bill that would permit barter of farm surpluses to Iron Curtain countries of Eastern Europe "on a selective basis."

The measure also would increase from $3 billion to $4 billion the authorization for sale of farm surpluses to friendly nations for their currencies.

Authority for giving agricultural surpluses to foreign countries in case of disaster would be increased from $500 million to $800 million.

The bartering provision would not relax restrictions on transactions with Russia but would apply to other Iron Curtain countries such as Poland which indicate a break from Russian control.

Ex-Union Agent Is Fined $1,500
DANVILLE, Ill. (UP) — A former Belleville union agent was fined $1,500 and placed on probation for five years on an attempted extortion charge in Federal Court here late Wednesday.

He was William Adrian, 56, former business agent for Local 101 of the Pipefitters Union at Belleville. Federal Judge Casper Platt imposed the sentence after Adrian withdrew a plea of innocent to a three count indictment, and pleaded guilty to the attempted extortion charge.

The court to which Adrian pleaded guilty charged him with attempted extortion of contractors at Scott Air Force Base near Belleville in 1951.

Two other counts, which charged Adrian with extorting about $5,000 from he contractors, were dismissed. A federal grand jury indicted Adrian on the extortion charges in 1954.

About a year ago Adrian was fined $2,000 and ordered to resign as an officer of his union after he pleaded guilty to a perjury indictment.

He was charged with perjury himself before a grand jury when he testified he did not enter an agreement to split saving with a contractor on estimated labor costs.

Inflation Is A Danger: Hoover

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (UP) — Former President Hoover said Wednesday night the greatest danger to the nation at this time is inflation.

The 82-year-old statesman said taxpayers are "groaning" over government spending. Pressure groups must be made to lay off Congress so the government can reduce its huge money outlay, he said.

Mr. Hoover, here for a three-week rest and some fishing in the Florida Keys, said, "The purchasing power of the dollar is down every month."

If the public will take some of the "special interest groups' pressures off Congress," he said, then the nation's lawmakers might have a better chance to reduce the spending program.

FIRE WARNING SHOTS
MANILA (UP) — Troops fired

warning shots in the city today to break up demonstrations of grief that turned into near riots at the bier of the late President Ramon Magsaysay. Two persons were injured.

Authorities estimated more than 100,000 persons had filed past the bier at Malacanan Palace by early today. The palace grounds were packed with thousands more.

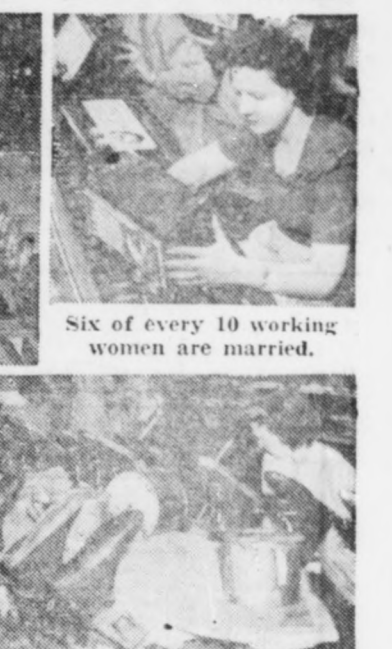

ONE-THIRD OF GALS OVER 14 IN LABOR FORCE

Women put in more than one-fourth of "man-hours" worked.

Three of every 10 married women hold jobs.

Six of every 10 working women are married.

Five of every 10 working women are over 40.

One-fifth of U. S. income — $42 billion — is earned by jobholding women.

Forty per cent of American women — 28,000,000 — work sometime every year.

A THIRD of U. S. women (over 14) are in the American "labor force," says the National Manpower Council of Columbia University, which comments that the onetime spinster "career woman" has been supplanted by the working wife. Only 7 per cent of women never marry. Here are some facts gleaned by the council, which was created by President Eisenhower when he was Columbia president before he got his promotion. WALTS RITES HELD AT NEW ALBANY M. E. CHURCH

NEW ALBANY (UP)—A Methodist minister who killed a bank bandit with a riot gun delivered impassively today a funeral oration for a state trooper the robber shot while trying to escape.

The Rev. Ernest Gingery, 37, was one of two ministers who conducted services in Gingery's Trinity Methodist church here for Sgt. Marvin Walts, who fell with a bullet in his head during a three way gun duel Monday afternoon.

Gingery prayed, read the Bible verses and poems and told of Walts' religious life from the pulpit of the church, while a crowd of more than 600 persons filled the sanctuary and spilled over into the street outside the church. The gun wielding minister whose shotgun blast killed William Hassett, 25, Louisville, a few minutes after a $1,655 bank holdup at Sellersburg, appeared calm as he concluded the services with the aid of another minister.

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord," the Rev. Gingery said as he started the services. He described Walts' life with reference to his close association to the church.

Among the mourners were many fellow state troopers and law enforcement authorities from Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio, and Illinois. Six state troopers who like, Walts, also are members of the Masonic order, carried the casket from a mortuary across the street from the church. The Rev. Floyd Cook, superintendent of the Methodist district where Gingery's church is located, also eulogized Walts.

NAMED BY HIGHWAY HEAD

Indianapolis (UP)—Highway chairman John Peters Wednesday named White County auditor W. L. Henry, Monticello, investigator for the department's right-of-way division.

REDS GIVE BLESSING FOR MARRIAGE OF ATHLETES
LONDON (UP)—Communist Czechoslovakia gave its blessing today for American Olympian Harold Connolly to wed pretty Olga Fikotova, the Czech discus champion he met and wooed at the Melbourne Olympics.

The U. S. embassy in Prague reported by telephone that Connolly got the news of official permission after a hurried flight across the Iron Curtain to his fiancée's side. He had been waiting in Vienna for the Czechs to act on a personal appeal to Czech President Antonin Zapotocky.

The embassy said Connolly, the Olympic hammer throw champion, will marry 24-year-old Olga in Prague next Wednesday and probably fly home to Boston the same night.

LIBRARY WEEK
Indiana Library Week will be observed in the Roachdale Public Library March 24-30. By special proclamation, Governor Harold W. Handley has set aside this week for special recognition of libraries through the state. The proclamation observed that libraries are a basic educational, cultural, and economic asset in the communities they serve, and urges "upon all citizens that they utilize, improve and give generous support to their libraries."

The Roachdale Public Library has been serving Roachdale and Franklin Township since 1913. The collection now includes more than 7,200 books. In addition, the library subscribes to 40 current periodicals and newspapers. A copy of the proclamation in full is on display in the library. Also on display on the Library bulletin board this week are copies of published works by local authors: an article from the current Popular Gardening magazine, "Germariums for Easy Up-keep," by Jack V. Porter, and a poem, "Spring Scene" by Livy Miller Ashby from the March 16 issue of the Daily Banner.

Unsafe Safety Play Can Cause Defeat
By Alfred Sheinwold
"A little knowledge is a dangerous thing" applies to bridge as well as to other affairs. In today's hand declarer picked the wrong time to execute something that looked like a safety play.

Opening lead—♥ Q

West opened the queen of hearts, and the defenders quickly rattled off three heart tricks. They then tackled the diamonds, and South needed the rest of the tricks.

South's only problem was to avoid the loss of a trump trick. Naturally, he planned to take a finesse for the queen. First, however, he thought he would try the "safety play" of cashing the ace of trumps to guard against a singleton queen.

This was an expensive and unsafe play. When South next led a club to dummy's king and returned the jack of spades, East could afford to cover with the queen. This drove out the king of spades. Dummy's ten would pick up the seven of spades, but then East was sure to win a trick with the eight of spades.

FOOLISH RISK
As this hand demonstrates, the play of the ace guarded against a singleton queen in the West hand, but was sure to lose if West had any other singleton. Now, if West did have a singleton trump, there were five possible singletons for him to hold. It was foolish to guard against one at the risk of losing to the other four.

The correct play in this hand was to lead the first trump from dummy with the intention of finessing immediately. In this way,

South could cope with any three or four trumps headed by the queen in the East hand.

The time to cash the ace of trumps first is when you have enough high trumps to handle the situation if your ace catches nothing worth mentioning.

DAILY QUESTION
As dealer, you hold: S—A K 5 H—6 5 2 D—A K 6 3 2 C A 7 What do you do?
Answer: Bid one diamond. The hand is too strong for an opening bid of one no-trump, and no other opening bid should be considered.
